It is the sincere hope of the 1963-64 Annual Staff that this book contains a complete summary of our last school year.

We realize that a successful education is not entirely composed of academic subjects but of all the clubs, organizations, sports, and social events that have made this year memorable.

If, in years to come, you find enjoyment in glancing through the 64 Redskin, we will feel the book has served its purpose.

In Honor of . . .

How can we say thank-you for the gifts of guidance, knowledge, and personal pride that you have enkindled in each one of us?

It is beyond the realm of possibility to completely thank-you and congratulate you for your successful efforts.

Therefore, Miss Willison, the Redskin Staff—on behalf of the Student Body—extends to you the one humble gift that represents each one of us. We dedidate to you the 1963-64 REDSKIN.

Miss Willison's graduation picture from high school.

Activities

King Chuck and Queen Marilyn take advantage of the melodious music played in their honor.

After weeks of preparation, the long anticipated day arrived. At six-thirty on October 11, 1963, the parade of floats started their regal journey down Main Street.

Setting the processional mood was the Belding High marching band immediately followed by the Freshmen who chose Nancy Kilborn and Pat Clark to represent them. Beth Jensen and Jerry Byrne proudly represented the Sophomore class.

A hush fell over the spectators as Queen Marilyn Bush, seated on a convertible passed on the way to the Athletic Field where she would be crowned along with King Chuck Rowland.

Mary Schrauben, adorning the Junior float, was escorted by Allen Rickert. Linda Mahar and Teague Breimayer were given the honor of representing the Senior class.

The Senior class proudly presented the Homecoming Dance "Autumn Leaves" after the game.

Bobby and Janet Moss, crownbearers, momentarily stole the show as they preceded the procession of royal dignitaries.

The King and Queen of last year, Chuck Alexander and Mary Lamoreaux, gave up their crowns to the King and Queen of 1963, Chuck Rowland and Marilyn Bush.

Seniors Triumphant in All Aspects

Linda Mahar, who proudly adorns the winning senior float, was the recipient of the trophy presented to her by Mrs. Fitzner. The Ladies Literary Club sponsored the trophy.

Confusion Amidst Regal Beauty

Bob and Janet Moss proudly carry the crowns to the regal throne.

Elegance and sophistication were highlights of the evening, but behind the scenes these candid shots show the nervousness of a couple of royal representatives. Mary Schrauben, upper right, is caught off guard while making last minute preparations. Nancy Kilborn, lower right, finds herself a victim of unhappy circumstances, but soon regains her happiness.

Kristen Benedict, Mary Helen Shannon (alternate) were chosen to represent Belding

for Their Efforts

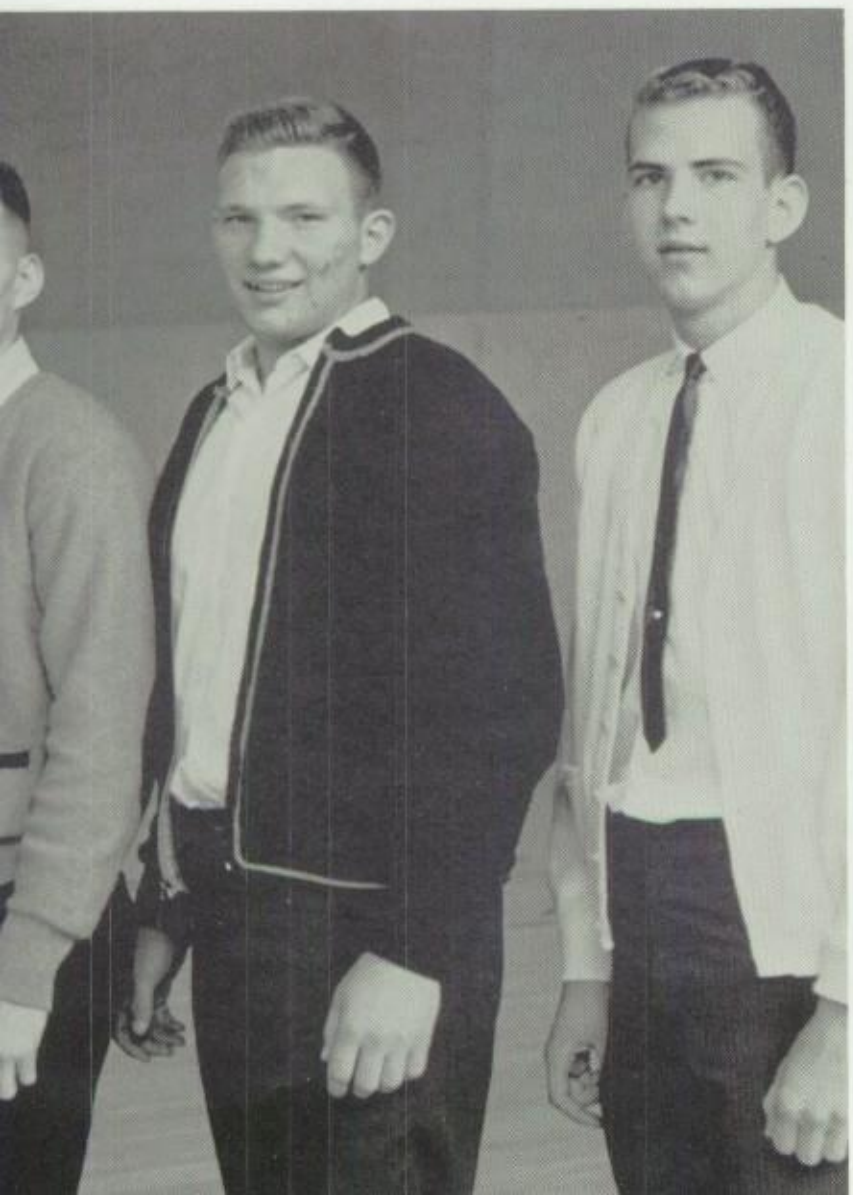
erlin (alternate) Allen Rickert, Dennis Fountaine, Jim



Tri-River Student Council members are Dan Schrauben, Sam Bird, Pat Bowler, Al Shindorf.

Mrs. Gerke, Mrs. Haney, and Mr. and Mrs. Jagger enjoy the great evening.

Co-chairman Martha Van Loo and Albert Shindorf successfully guided their class in planning the Junior-Senior Prom, Buitenskans. A windmill with rotating blades, a tulip garden, and a large wooden shoe carried out the Dutch theme. The couples danced to the music of Gene Roberts and the Rhythm Stylists under the pastel blue and yellow dome-shaped ceiling. Miniature wooden shoe favors and the programs were handed out by Freshman girls. The Freshman girls were also in charge of refreshments.

Best Prom Ever

The evening proved to be memorable for school personnel and parents as well.

The Juniors bade the Seniors a fond farewell and good luck by honoring them at the last dance of their high school career.

Couples enjoy evening of dancing.

This year we feel that our football team has greatly improved. Out of nine games played we won three which is a great advance over previous years. We give the credit to our coaches Mr. Prahst and Mr. Ash, who have given the boys the help and spirit they needed.

At our last game with Greenville the Redskins proved themselves by defeating the Yellow Jackets 26 to 12 and brought home the American Legion Trophy. We are truly proud of the 1963-64 Redskin football squad.
